

Let New Jersey's Do Not Call law be an example to all states. Just because it's more strigent than the federal program is no reason to overturn it. It's better to be a leader than a follower!